Abstract

[The text within the square brackets must be deleted along with the square brackets when finalising your own abstract.

The abstract for an undergraduate dissertation should be between 200 - 350 words.

Arial, Normal, 11pt with 1.2 or 1.5 line spacing should be used. The text in this part has 1.5 line spacing.

An abstract is a brief, accurate and comprehensive summary of the entire dissertation. It is the first thing to be read by your examiners to help them know the brief content of the dissertation. It also serves as a “sales pitch” to form the first impression of your work.

A good abstract should be accurate, self-contained, concise, specific and clear. A quick way to assess the quality of your abstract is to check whether it answers the questions why, how, what and so what.

Researching the efficacy of using CNN's (Convolutional neural networks to identify crop defects) and creating a suitable platform for users to interact with the network.

It is easier to write the Abstract the last.]

Acknowledgements

[The text within the square brackets must be deleted along with the square brackets when finalising your own acknowledgements.]

Arial, Normal, 11pt with 1.2 or 1.5 line spacing should be used. The text in this part has 1.5 line spacing.

This is your opportunity to mention individuals who have been particularly helpful. Reading the acknowledgements in the past dissertations in the project library will give you an idea of the ways in which different kinds of help have been appreciated and mentioned.]
